

I don't appreciate the Consumer Bankers Association's attempt to weaken the telephone privacy law here in my state. There is nothing more obnoxious than having an invasion of privacy by a bunch of rude telemarketers hired to "get our business". They take away from family time and are an annoyance. I don't pay my phone bill so they can solicit me. Stop this nonsense!